X3 And I cry and no one can hear
In hell
The blinded eyes that see
The chaos
X3 Bring the pitiful to me
Even though I'm wide-awake, I will,
And blackest night and i wait for you
It's cold in here there's no one left
And i wait for you
And nothing stops it happening
And I knew, I'd cherish all my misery alone

X5 And I wait staring at the Northern Star
I'm afraid it won't lead me anywhere,
He's so cold he will ruin the world tonight
All the angels kneel into the Northern Lights
Kneel into the frozen lights

X3 And they paid, I cry and cry for you
Ghosts that haunt you with their sorrow
I cried 'cause you were doomed
Praying to the wound that swallows
X3 All that's cold and cruel
Can you see the trees, charity and gratitude
They run to the pines
It's black in here blot out the sun
And run to the pines
Our misery runs wild and free
And i knew, the fire and the ashes of his grace...

And I want you
 And blessed are the broken
 And I beg you
 No loneliness, no misery is worth you
 Oh tear his heart out cold as ice it's mine

And I wait praying to the Northern Star
 I'm afraid it won't lead you anywhere
 He's so cold raining on the world tonight
 All the angels kneeling to the Northern Lights
 And I pray begging to the Northern Star
 I'm afraid it won't lead you anywhere
 He's so cold he will rule the world tonight
 All the angels kneeling to the Northern Lights
 Kneeling to the frozen lights
 Feel their hearts they're cold as ice
