You walk into the room
 So perfect but unaware
 Making me stop and stare
 Every time I heard he broke your heart
 Can I just fix you girl?
 Show you a different world?

I'll take you anywhere
 I'll put you on a throne
 I'll lay down my heart, I swear
 And I'll make sure that you'll never be alone

Only my shadow knows
 How I feel about you
 Only my shadow goes
 Where I dream of you and me
 Should I go or wait?
 Is it too soon, too late?
 Only my shadow knows

I've been loving you so long
 And now that I got the chance
 I see you need to dance on your own
 So I'll wait another day
 Maybe another year
 I'm gonna be right here, oh

I'll take you anywhere
 I'll put you on a throne
 I'll lay down my heart, I swear
 And I'll make sure that you'll never be alone (alone)

Only my shadow knows...

I wish I could say all these words
 All these things that your heart never heard, yeah
 But I saw the pain in your eyes and it sealed my lips

Only my shadow knows...

Only my shadow knows
