When I was young, it seemed that life was so wonderful, a miracle, it was beautiful, magical
 And all the birds in the trees, well they'd be singing so happily, joyfully, playfully, watching me
 But then they send me away to teach me how to be sensible, logical, responsible, practical
 And they showed me a world where I could be so dependable, clinical, intellectual, cynical
 There are times when all the world's asleep
 The questions run too deep for such a simple man
 Won't you please, please tell me what we've learned
 I know it sounds absurd but please tell me who I am

I said now, watch what you say, now we're calling you a radical, a liberal, fanatical, criminal
 Won't you sign up your name, we'd like to feel you're acceptable, respectable, presentable, a vegetable

But at night, when all the world's asleep
 The questions run so deep for such a simple man
 Won't you please (Won't you tell me), (You can tell me what) please tell me what we've learned (Can you hear me?)
 I know it sounds absurd, (Won't you help me) please tell me who I am, who I am, who I am, who I am

But I'm thinking so logical
 Did you call, one two three four
 It's getting unbelievable
